Anna Nicole Smith and Me

When I was a little kid I went to Los Angeles with my Mommy and Daddy. When we were on the plane saw a big lady with yellow hair.

She was with a lot of people that had cameras and she was flying to the same place we were. When we got on the plane the man asked my Mommy and Daddy if I wanted to see here. She picked me up and bounced me up and down on her lap. My mommy and Daddy say that her name is Anna Nicole Smith and she had a TV show. They put me on Anna Nicole's TV show it was called the Anna Nicole Show. In the Anna Nicole show number 10 she is on the plane with me bouncing me up and down on her lap.

I saw a picture of her when later and she was much skinnier but when I saw her on the plave she was really fat. I am glad she isn't too fat anymore, that's not good for you.
