

I Met a Very Nice Girl Named Faith

Contributed by Taylor Lipton
Tuesday, February 24, 2009

Today at gold's gym I met a very nice girl named Faith. She was so much fun.

I'll tell you what we did together, first we played ball, then we just sat down and talked, and after that we did a puzzle that I brung, and last but not least we talked about the map, stuff like where we live and where people that we know live and tons more. the point is we had lots and lots of fun. There was so much people there though but the second I met her I knew exactly who to play with. Which is obviously Faith.Hi Faith